

Sontia Logic Limited

Sontia appoints new chairman

PRESS RELEASE: 30th January 2009

Sontia Logic Limited announced today the appointment of its first chairman, Mark Bernstein.

Mark, 49, joined Sontia as non-executive Chairman in January 2009. Originally qualified as a chartered accountant with Ernst & Young in 1984, he has since worked in the high tech sector in Europe, the US and Japan.

He currently chairs a number of fast-growth companies (some VC-backed), and is a non-executive Director of Moss Bros Group plc - listed on the London Stock Exchange. During his career Mark has floated five companies, raised over £150m, and undertaken over 20 acquisitions and disposals, including the sale of another patented audio technology business, Soundtouch Ltd, in 2005.

Amongst the strategic partners who have previously made investments in Mark's companies are IBM, Motorola, BT, BskyB, Dixons, and Daily Mail.

Mark Bernstein commented "I believe Sontia to have a bright future. Chris Vernon's approach to digital sound processing differentiates the Sontia solution from its competitors, and I look forward to working with Chris and his team to develop Sontia into a global licensor of its technology".

Chris Vernon, founder and CEO stated "In Mark, we have attracted someone with many years' experience of building IP-rich businesses around the world. His commercial skills will complement the strong technology base of the business, and in due course we look forwards to putting his strategic partnering expertise to good use".
